British White Herring Fishery.

The bounties hereafter-mentioned, are allowed annually for 7 years, from the 1st. of June, 1787.

To the owner of every British-built vessel of 15 tons, or upwards, properly equipped, viz. 12 bushels of salt in new barrels, for every last of fish such vessel is capable of containing, and as many more new barrels as such ship can carry; also 250 square yards of netting, with other materials for mounting the same, also 5 men for the first 15 tons, and one additional man for every 5 tons such ship shall measure, and to clear from a British port, where such vessel belongs, between the 1st. of June, and the 1st. of October; to continue fishing for 3 months from the day the nets are first shot, and to return to a port with a full compliment of men, and with a full cargo, taken wholly by the crew of such vessel, shall receive a bounty, per ton

For every barrel of Pickled Herrings, twice packed and completely cured, (and not exceeding in quantity the proportion of $2\frac{1}{2}$ barrels per ton, which the vessel in which such herrings are imported shall measure) a bounty of, per barrel

Exceeding the proportion of $2\frac{1}{2}$ barrels, per ton

N. B. Quantity to be computed while in the sea steeks, 4 barrels of which to be deemed equal to 3 barrels of Cured Herrings.

Every vessel, not being entitled to a bounty on her tonnage, a bounty is allowed on her cargo, viz. that for all Herrings which shall be landed from any boat or vessel, not entitled as aforesaid, per barrel

To the owners of vessels employed in the deep sea fishery, the following premiums are given :

For the greatest quantity of Herrings imported in one vessel, between the 1st. of June and the 1st. of November

— the next greatest quantity

63

— the next ditto

42

— the next ditto

21

The owners of Herrings taken and cured, as the act of 26 Geo. III. cap. 81, directs for exportation, are entitled to a bounty of per barrel

And are allowed the drawback of the whole duty on salt, with which such Herrings are cured.

Vessels returning with less than her proper number of men, unless the default was occasioned by death, sickness, or desertion, and without a full cargo of Herrings, are not entitled to a bounty. By a subsequent act, 27 Geo. III. a full cargo of Herrings is deemed to be in proportion as 4 barrels once packed, to 3 barrels twice packed, for every ton burthen.

By the above subsequent act, all decked vessels of not less than 15 tons, are entitled to all the bounties mentioned in the act 26 Geo. III. before recited, provided they take, in one year, the proportion of 6 barrels of Bounties, Premiums, or Allowances.

Herrings, when cured, for every ton burthen; although they may not have fitted out with the quantity of salt and barrels required by the said act.

If after October 1, Herrings are packed in casks, not branded with the name of the curer, such casks with the fish, are forfeited.

Staves of barrels, in which Herrings are packed for exportation, not being $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick, and full bound, are, together with the fish, forfeited.

Masters of vessels not making a true entry of the quantity of fish, and where taken, at the port where they intend to land them, such ships and cargoes are forfeited.

Salt carried Coastwise, for the purpose of the Fishery, unless bond and other securities have been given, as the act recites, such salt to be forfeited, with double its value, besides the duties.

Officers taking fees of any kind, to forfeit treble the value, and to be discharged.

The inhabitants of the Isle of Man, who comply with the terms of these acts, (26 and 27 Geo. III.) for all the Herrings that are caught or taken by them, are entitled for each barrel to, a bounty of _____

Pickled, or Cured Herrings, exported beyond sea, by 5 Geo. I. the barrel ————

N. B. The duties formerly payable on Herrings imported into Great-Britain from the Isle of Man, are by the above acts to cease.

Irish White Herring Fishery.

By the acts of the Irish legislature now in force, the owners of every vessel, being Irish property, who resort to the fishery of that kingdom, are entitled to a bounty, per ton

Viz. 10s. per ton on the vessel, and 20s. per ton on the cargo, and in proportion for any quantity of Herrings they cure; whether the same are caught by the ships crew, or purchased of the native fishermen.
